Relet 22, look forward (with thanks) to getting AND finding time to read Who Rules America. To your list of Offense Secretaries you might want to consider who runs State. It once looked like a Rockefeller concession....That boycott by Sears, etc., can be a new form of repression, pressure on papers not to accept peace ads. There was a time when nothing not commercial except the right-wing could get such advertising soace, with the Times and the Post among those rejecting...Allen photo: I am satisfied that the two investigations made for me by those in whom I have professional trust are dependable: the papers never had the names and there was no formal arrest. They are picked up other than where Sprague places them in his various accounts. Two blocks away and much later...Garrison in some published statement is source on two more books. Little new. Trying to find time to write, too, but had company for two days and had to be in DC all day today. Best regards,
